Why join?

F C Cake Publishing believes in profit sharing. We want you to be able to share the rewards from sales of our e-books and CD's. This will enable you to sell the products at reduced rates to your customers or students, therefore helping those who may have limited funds for their studies

- Discounts from 50% - 80% and even more
- Offers huge savings for company training schemes
- Affordable textbooks for students
- Author, Meribeth Dayme, PhD, highly respected leader in business and the performing arts as teacher, writer of books and articles, seminar leader, and speaker.

Products available for licensing at this time:

Creating Confidence, e-book

The Little Book About Singing, e-book (available in French and Spanish)

SUCCEED, CD

What does joining involve?

1. Determine the number of books or CD's you can sell over a two-year period. Note: a minimum of 25 required.
2. Agree and sign a license for legal permission to distribute or sell the publications.
3. You will be invoiced upon signing of contract
4. Payment in advance for publications is required
5. You will be sent digital books in pdf format with your logo and permission included
6. You are not allowed to alter any text, but can print the books if you wish.
7. There are no returns allowed. Once you have paid, you have the right to produce the number of books you agreed.
8. At the end of two years new versions of the publications will be introduced and you will be given a chance to renew your license with even greater discounts.
