TESTIMONIALS AND HONOURS

From the Performing Arts (selected):

Meribeth's writings and master-classes present a vivid experience of health throughout the singing process, from basic physiological principles through to the real-time relationship with the audience. There is a wholistic joy about her work that inspires performers and listeners alike....

Robin Bowman, Head of Vocal Studies, Guildhall School of Music and Drama

Meribeth Dayme is a true master teacher. She has a thorough knowledge of the human voice and an uncanny understanding of people and the way that we learn and process information. Her extensive academic credentials are balanced with a healthy dose of common sense. She is an experienced presenter, equally effective with classical voice teachers, pop vocal coaches, professional singers, amateur singers, choral directors, and public speakers. Meribeth's workshops are fun, interactive and informative. She always injects humor, creativity, and spontaneity in her presentations with a focus on practical application of knowledge and skills. Cynthia Vaughn, co-author The Singing Book, Assistant Professor of Voice, Colorado State University

'Meribeth's Masterclass at the RNCM was astounding. She taught with a simplicity and truthfulness that can only come from profound understanding. Under her expert guidance students made extraordinary, immediate and lasting transformations.

Susan Roper, Director of Vocal Studies Royal Northern College of Music, Manchester

"Meribeth has transformed my (whole) approach to singing".

Nancy Argenta, soprano, International concert artist

John Litchfield, Skandia UK

“I am very grateful to you for helping me to overcome my fears and start to actually enjoy presenting. Thank you for caring about the 'whole' me too, as I now understand that all aspects of the person contribute to well being and self- confidence”.
